

Titas Povilaitis

Großer Hasenpfad 141–145
Frankfurt am Main, 60598
Germany

E-mail: titaspo@gmail.com
Webpage: <https://titaspovilaitis.github.io>
Citizenship: Lithuania

EDUCATION

Sciences Po Paris, School of Research MRes in Economics, 16.1/20 (Best Master's Thesis in Economics Award)	Paris, France August 2024 - May 2026
Massachusetts Institute of Technology Exchange Program, BA in Economics and Sociology	Cambridge, USA August 2023 - May 2024
Sciences Po Paris, Undergraduate College BA in Economics and Sociology, 16.3/20 (Cum Laude)	Menton, France August 2021 - May 2023

WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Trainee in the Prices and Costs Division European Central Bank, Directorate General Economics	Frankfurt am Main, Germany July 2026 - Ongoing
• Executed code-based housing valuation models and synthesized pricing outputs into quarterly analytical commentary for executive staff • Coding and refining the short-term outlook dashboard for real-time data visualization • Preparing visual and written materials for analytical chapters and Governing Council meetings
Research Assistant in the Monetary Policy Division Bank of Lithuania, Economics Department	Vilnius, Lithuania June 2025 - August 2025
• Analyzing potential impacts of US tariffs on EU goods using trade elasticity and tariff pass-through scenarios • Processing and examining Eurostat and US Census Bureau data to track trade patterns and GDP effects • Authoring policy notes comparing ECB and Fed monetary policy responses to inflation and crises in light of their legal mandates
Intern in the Climate Policy Group Ministry of Environment of the Republic of Lithuania	Vilnius, Lithuania June 2024 - August 2024
• Producing economic analysis about effects of greenhouse gas emissions on long-term economic growth • Assisting the Group in establishing new climate resilience indicators based on econometric criteria • Contributing to the creation of a new greenhouse gas emission calculating system
Research Assistant in Research Opportunities Program MIT, Department of Economics and Supervised by Robert Townsend	Cambridge, USA September 2023 - January 2024
• Carrying out extensive academic research on the project of Supply Chain Finance • Preparing literature reviews and briefs concerning various empirical, theoretical, and policy papers linked to the project • Gathering, organizing, and analyzing different datasets about trade credit, mutual funds and other factors associated with research

- Contributing to the conception of the new White Book of the country's defence policy
- Preparing efficient briefing notes, reviews, and elaborate analyses for the Ministry's top management about defence policy choices by other countries concerning various political and economic subjects
- Observing the development of the country's strategic military bases and their respective objects with the Defence Policy Director

VOLUNTEERING EXPERIENCE

Volunteer Solving Humanitarian Issues
Les Coeurs du Campanin

Menton, France
September 2022 - May 2023

- Assembling and distributing alimentary humanitarian packs to economically deprived individuals
- Translating and giving all the information for incoming Ukrainian refugees
- Honing fundamental communication and problem-solving abilities

Volunteer in the Refugee Center for Ukrainians
Kaunas Refugee Center

Kaunas, Lithuania
June 2022 - August 2022

- Providing Ukrainians with all the fundamental gadgets and information once they enter the center at the information post
- Registering refugees into the database in the Lithuanian Migration Department
- Aiding migrants in searching for housing and work in the Lithuanian platform of "Strong Together"

Volunteer Providing Humanitarian Aid
Lithuanian Red Cross Society

Kaunas, Lithuania
February 2022 - Present

- Welcoming and providing necessary information for Ukrainian refugees in the Society's headquarters
- Preparing as well as issuing humanitarian packets and cards for refugees
- Attaining fundamental administrative and communication skills

SKILLS

Microsoft Office	Julia coding	Maths / statistics
Stata coding	LaTeX	Online collaboration tools
R coding	Geospatial Analysis (QGIS)	Communication / Teamwork

LANGUAGES

Lithuanian: Native	French: C1	Russian: B1
English: C2	Italian: B2	Turkish: A2